

KITPLANES FOR AFRICA

(PTY) LTD

Reg no 2005/032019/07

GENERAL DISCLAIMER

Please be advised of the following

1. Goods left at Kitplanes for Africa

All goods/ aircraft left at the premises of Kitplanes for Africa are at the owner's own risk. Kitplanes for Africa accepts no responsibility for any damages (no matter the cause) or theft of parts left on the premises of Kitplanes for Africa. Aircraft owners are encouraged to advise their insurance companies that aircraft/ goods are stored on other premises.

The facility at Petit is securely locked every night and there is a night watch on duty. We undertake to do our utmost to ensure that goods left in our care are not damaged or stolen.

2. Trailing/ moving of aircraft

While ensuring that its vehicles and trailers are road worthy and that the aircraft/ parts are adequately secured to the trailer/ vehicle Kitplanes for Africa accepts no responsibility for any damage/ loss of aircraft or parts while being towed/ moved. It is the owner's responsibility to ensure that the aircraft are properly insured.

3. Test flight/ maiden flight

Kitplanes for Africa will not accept responsibility for any damage that may occur due to any problems encountered while test flying a client's aircraft.

We strongly encourage clients to ensure that their aircraft are adequately insured and to ensure that their insurance companies are notified if other pilots (test pilot) are to fly their aircraft.